(b) If Ofcom is satisfied that, in connection with an application for consent under Condition 17(2) or Condition 17(6), the Licensee:

(7) Any exercise by Ofcom of its powers under Condition 40(3), (5) and (6) shall be without prejudice to Ofcom's powers under Condition 40(1) and 40(2).

Section 42 of the 1990 Act

(1) (a) If Ofcom is satisfied that the Licensee is failing to comply with any Condition of the Licence or with any direction under the Licence and that failure is such that, if not remedied, it would justify the revocation of the Licence, it shall serve on the Licensee a notice:

(i) stating that Ofcom is so satisfied;

(ii) specifying the respects in which, in the opinion of Ofcom, the Licensee is failing to comply with any such Condition or direction; and

(iii) stating that, unless the Licensee takes, within such period as is specified in the notice, such steps to remedy the failure as are so specified, Ofcom will revoke the Licence.

Definitions and interpretation

(1) In the following paragraphs unless the context otherwise requires:-

“Core Proposals” means the proposals submitted by the Licensee in his application for the Licence in response to the Questions A.1 to A.11 inclusive in Part I of Section A of the Attachment to Part III of the Invitation to Apply for Regional Channel 3 Licences issued by the Independent Television Commission, together with any additional information furnished to the Independent Television Commission by the Licensee pursuant to Section 15(4) of the 1990 Act details of which are set out in Part 7 of this Annex; terms used in such Core Proposals shall be interpreted in accordance with the guidance provided by the Independent Television Commission in the Invitation to Apply;

“hours/minutes” refers to the number of hours/minutes per calendar year or per week averaged over a calendar year that would be transmitted, measured in “slot times” (that is, including advertising breaks, programme trailers and presentation material during and at the end of programmes) except for material under 10 minutes in length which is measured in “running times” (that is, excluding advertising breaks, programme trailers and presentation material); and

(2) In the event of any inconsistency between the Core Proposals and the provisions of the Schedule and this Annex, the provisions of the Schedule and the Annex shall prevail.

Compliance with programme proposals
(1) Subject to paragraph 1(1) and without prejudice to Part 2 of this Annex, and except to the extent that Ofcom shall otherwise agree in writing, the Licensee shall ensure that the Regional Channel 3 Service:

(a) accords with the Core Proposals; and

(b) satisfies the minimum requirements set out in Parts 2 and 3 of this Annex; and

(c) accords with the following diversity requirements:

Network service

The ITV network service will provide all viewers with a range of high quality programmes appealing to a wide variety of tastes and interests throughout the schedule but particularly in peak viewing times.

The network service will provide a generally higher level of original production than other commercial services, particularly at peak viewing times, and there will be examples of programme innovation, creative ambition and landmark programming in each quarter’s schedule appropriate to ITV’s role as a mass audience service.

A significant amount of original drama, entertainment and information programmes, including those designed for children, fulfilling a range of purposes and in different styles and formats, will form the foundation of the schedule, and national and international news will have an important place in it.

The network service will support the diversity of cultures in the UK, including a strong commitment to regionality both through regional programmes and network production commissions.

Night-time service (midnight –0600)

In addition to the minimum requirements set out in Parts 2 and 3 of this Annex, the Licensee will provide a mixed programme service during the period midnight to 0600, all or part of which may be commissioned, acquired and scheduled on its behalf by ITV Network Limited.
The schedule at this time will normally include news, feature films, current affairs, sport, entertainment, factual (including documentaries), arts programmes and text based information. Regional programmes and information may also be included.

Diversity across these programme categories will be achieved over the course of any week. The schedule will include selected repeats of programmes first shown on ITV outside these hours.

An appropriate balance will be maintained between commissioned and acquired programmes within the 65 per cent original productions/commissions quota that applies to ITV’s annual output as a whole.

Regional service

As a regional public service broadcaster, the Licensee commits to the following:

The regional service will include news and current affairs programming of at least the minimum amounts specified in Part 2 of this Annex.

In addition, the regional service will seek to respond creatively to the evolving and wide range of tastes, interests and communities within the region or nation and include material which is socially purposive, has educational value and reflects the cultural, artistic, sporting and spiritual life and identity of the region or nation.

Diversity may be enhanced by the inclusion of both studio and location-based programmes, including coverage of major events, and a mix of one-off documentaries, magazine formats and discrete series.

Regional programmes shall reflect a high level of ambition no less than network programmes, and shall be appropriately researched and resourced. Some should be capable of being regarded as landmark series of particular distinction or programmes which break new ground.
3. Independent productions and the Licensee agrees to use all reasonable endeavours to fill the slots referred to in this paragraph 13(1)(g) with regional programmes.

(b) For the purposes of this paragraph 13 “duration” shall mean the ‘slot time’ of a programme including advertisements and promotions shown during and at the start and/or end of the programmes.

14. Licensee’s commitment

(1) In respect of 2003 and each subsequent year, by dates to be notified by Ofcom, the Licensee shall:

(a) following consultation with Ofcom, publish, in a manner best calculated to make it widely available in the relevant nation or region, a rolling annual commitment as to the nature, scale and diversity of the regional service which it will deliver pursuant to the Licence in the following calendar year and any major programme proposals for the subsequent calendar year (the “rolling annual commitment”). If any major new investment (whether financial or otherwise) is planned for the service including studios, facilities and staff, the Licensee should refer to this in its rolling annual commitment. The rolling annual commitment will allow for changes in the regional service while specifying as clearly as possible how the Licensee intends to meet its obligations under paragraphs 2 (1)(b) and (c) of Part 1 of the Annex to provide material of a high quality and varied nature; and

(b) following consultation with Ofcom publish, in a manner best calculated to make it widely available in the relevant nation or region, a written report of the extent to which the Licensee has fulfilled its commitments in the rolling annual commitment for the regional service for the previous year (the “self-assessment report”);

(c) procure the publication by the ITV Network Limited of rolling annual commitments and self-assessment reports dealing with the network service and night-time service, in a manner best calculated to make them widely available in the UK and following consultation by ITV Network Limited with Ofcom.

(2) Ofcom may at its discretion publish rolling annual commitments and self-assessment reports, for example on its website, subsequent to their publication by the Licensee and ITV Network Limited.

(3) Ofcom may take the rolling annual commitments and the extent to which the Licensee has fulfilled them into account when carrying out its annual review of the Licensee’s performance in the provision of the Regional Channel 3 service (the “annual review”).
